

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP AND INTERCULTURAL LEARNING AT TAMOS EDUCATION

FUTURE LEADERS:

Graduates who exhibit the vision, innovation, and courage to lead and inspire positive change in their chosen fields and communities.

ADMIRATION OF CULTURAL TRADITIONS:

Graduates who deeply respect and celebrate their own cultural heritage while showing an openness and curiosity about other cultures.

HIGH DISCIPLINE:

Graduates who demonstrate consistent commitment, self-control, and dedication to their pursuits, whether academic, professional, or personal.

HIGH EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE:

Graduates with a keen awareness and understanding of their emotions and those of others, enabling them to navigate complex social situations with empathy and wisdom.

MORAL CODE OF ETHICS:

Graduates who uphold a set of principles and values, guiding their decisions and actions with integrity, fairness, and a strong sense of ethics.

COOPERATION FOR SOCIETAL PROBLEM SOLVING:

Graduates who actively engage with others, leveraging their collaborative skills to address and resolve complex societal issues.

TOLERANCE:

Graduates who embrace diversity and differing viewpoints with respect and patience, fostering harmonious coexistence.

MULTILINGUAL:

Graduates who possess proficiency in multiple languages, enabling effective communication and cultural understanding across borders.

LIFELONG LEARNING:

Graduates who have a continuous desire to expand their knowledge and skills throughout their lives, adapting to an ever-changing world.

GLOBAL CITIZEN:

Graduates who consider themselves as part of a broader global community, with a sense of responsibility towards global issues and the welfare of all people.

Global Citizenship and Intercultural Learning at Tamos Education

Global citizenship and intercultural learning at Tamos Education represent a transformative educational journey designed to nurture graduates who embody a remarkable set of qualities. These graduates will be the future leaders of our society, characterized by their unwavering discipline, high emotional intelligence, and adherence to a strong moral code of ethics. They are driven by a collective commitment to collaborate effectively in addressing the complex challenges our world faces. These graduates also hold a deep appreciation for their own cultural traditions while being eager explorers of others. They exemplify tolerance and are true global citizens, embracing diversity as a source of strength. They are multilingual, breaking down communication barriers, and they possess a thirst for lifelong learning, continually evolving their understanding of the world.

Future Leaders: Graduates who exhibit the vision, innovation, and courage to lead and inspire positive change in their chosen fields and communities.

High Discipline: Graduates who demonstrate consistent commitment, self-control, and dedication to their pursuits, whether academic, professional, or personal.

High Emotional Intelligence: Graduates with a keen awareness and understanding of their emotions and those of others, enabling them to navigate complex social situations with empathy and wisdom.

Moral Code of Ethics: Graduates who uphold a set of principles and values, guiding their decisions and actions with integrity, fairness, and a strong sense of ethics.

Cooperation for Societal Problem Solving: Graduates who actively engage with others, leveraging their collaborative skills to address and resolve complex societal issues.

Admiration of Cultural Traditions: Graduates who deeply respect and celebrate their own cultural heritage while showing an openness and curiosity about other cultures.

Tolerance: Graduates who embrace diversity and differing viewpoints with respect and patience, fostering harmonious coexistence.

Global Citizen: Graduates who consider themselves as part of a broader global community, with a sense of responsibility towards global issues and the welfare of all people.

Multilingual: Graduates who possess proficiency in multiple languages, enabling effective communication and cultural understanding across borders.

Lifelong Learning: Graduates who have a continuous desire to expand their knowledge and skills throughout their lives, adapting to an ever-changing world.